INVOCATION (UNISON)

O time-keeper God, we thank you that we can rest in you, secure amid the conflict and confusion of life. We thank you that you love us and that you have trusted us to one another’s care. Help us to receive with humility and to give with joy. Bless us in our playfulness of summer and renew us in our change of seasons. Amen.

CALL TO WORSHIP

ONE VOICE : O Giver of Life, we are the people who have heard a word and cannot unhear;

MANY VOICES: Who have felt a warmth that cannot be chilled. We call you Spirit—Holy Spirit.

ONE VOICE: You move among us, connecting us to one another despite our different languages, our different races, our different cultures, even our different religions and loyalties.

MANY VOICES: The unity of our love is restful in a world of chaos.

ONE VOICE: I do not want to miss anything you have planned for us.

MANY VOICES: It seems that there are not enough minutes for the hours, hours for the days, and days for the weeks

ALL: Help us make time for Sabbath keeping. Whatever day, whenever it is— is important and necessary. Self-care is a critical part of balance. And rest and rejuvenation are essential for whole and Holy living. Amen.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. Forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory for ever. Amen.

Thank you, God of generosity, for the promise of a new season. May these gifts represent a new spirit of joyous sharing among us; for the sake of all your children everywhere. Amen.

WE GO FORTH

BENEDICTION (UNISON)

We depart with gifts of love we have received from our earthly fathers and those who wear that title. We give thanks for the nurture and care we have received. Grant that we, their sons and daughters, may honor them always with a spirit of newfound respect. Grant this through Christ our Lord. Amen.
